

Landscape Design School Series XIII, Course II

Sponsored by
The National Capital Area Garden Clubs, Inc.
in cooperation with
The Federated Garden Clubs of Maryland, Inc.

WHAT: Course 1 "LEARN THE SITE STROKES"

WHEN: Tuesday November 9th through Thursday November 11th, 2010.

WHERE: Hilton Washington DC North/Gaithersburg located at 620 Perry Parkway, Gaithersburg, MD 20877; toll free 800-695-0826

WHY: If you want to learn more about landscape design, how to deal with a changing environment (such as when your property matures), or landscaping in an environmentally friendly manner; if you need to refresh; or if you just want new landscaping ideas, Join Us!

The program is being held in a location convenient to all; has new, enthusiastic instructors from throughout the region; and provides an opportunity to meet new and join old friends. Lots of exciting educational experiences are planned throughout, with the series ending in 2012 with a tour including a variety of exciting and different types of landscapes. Topics to be covered in Course II include: Landscape Design Process, Site Design & Landform, Plants in the Landscape, Plant Selection, Structures in the Landscape, Landscapes as a Learning Experience, Development of Landscape Design in Early America, Preservation of Historic Sites & Structures, Community Landscape Management and more. Courses may be taken in any order. (Special note: Scott Aker, noted Horticulturist & author of many articles will be on of our instructors this time!!!)
